SUMMER CAMP YEARBOOK

"Always Keep your flame lit"

My time at camp was totally _____! I can't wait to come back.
ADJECTIVE

JOIN US FOR A WORD ADVENTURE!

Throughout this yearbook, you will find sentences where some of the words are intentionally left blank, like this:

_____! I forgot to bring my _____ to camp today.
EXCLAMATION ADJECTIVE NOUN

Beneath each blank space, you will find a description of the kind of word that goes inside the blank. For example:

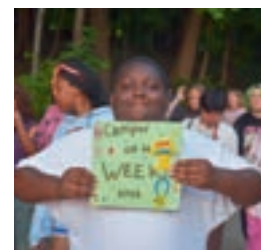

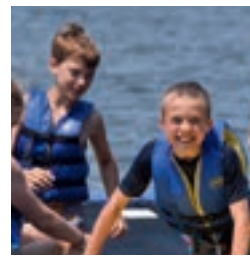

ADJECTIVE: A word that describes something. Stinky, shiny, beautiful.

NOUN: A person, place, or thing. Water, counselor, arrow, helmet.

VERB: An action word. Swim, run, climb, sneeze.

EXCLAMATION: A sound you might make. "Wow!" "Yoinks!" "Gah!"

As you flip through the yearbook, fill in the blanks to write fun, silly sentences. You can do it alone, or you can ask a friend or adult to help you come up with words!

ANOTHER FUN-FILLED SUMMER

Dear 2026 campers and families,

Summer has begun to fade into wonderful memories, and these cherished moments are keeping my heart warm during these chilly fall days. As I look back on all the fun we had this year, I want to thank you for making Summer 2026 at Camp Fire Minnesota so special.

ADJECTIVE

I never get tired of seeing campers step outside their comfort zones, support one another, and embrace all that camp has to offer. Whether they're getting in a canoe for the first time, connecting with nature on a deeper level, or making new friends, every camper brought something unique to our community.

VERB

NOUN

ADJECTIVE

I am also incredibly grateful to our families, who trust us with their children and partner with us throughout the summer. Your support helps create an environment where young people can be themselves, take healthy risks, build lasting friendships, and discover what they are capable of.

ADJECTIVE

While the summer may be over, we believe the memories your camper made with us will inspire them throughout the year. We hope they returned home with new skills, a stronger sense of community, and a renewed spirit of adventure.

NOUN

NOUN

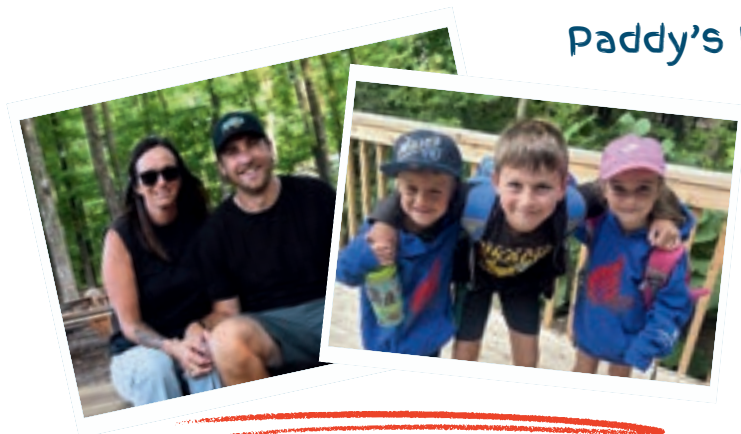

On behalf of the entire Camp Fire Minnesota team, thank you for being part of Summer 2026. We are grateful to have shared another unforgettable summer with your family, and we sincerely look forward to next year!
